

Kathleen A. Whalen

October 8, 1945 - August 10, 2010

Poughkeepsie- Kathleen Ann Whalen, 64, of Millbrook, NY, died peacefully on August 10, 2010 after a long illness. She was born on October 8, 1945, the daughter of Charles Russell and Elizabeth Sullivan Whalen in Albany, NY. She was predeceased by her parents.

Kathleen attended Vincentian Institute in Albany and enjoyed many vacations as a child with her family in Maine and at state campgrounds. She was an accomplished pianist. Kathleen spent a lifetime dealing with mental illness but enjoyed going out to dinner with her family and her days at the Center. She was especially happy at Greenbrier Home where she most recently resided.

Survivors include her loving sister, Annette (Timothy) Heilman of Niskayuna; her niece, Wendy (Kevin) Curran of Troy, her nephew, Daniel Charles Heilman of Niskayuna and her great niece, Kylie Anne Curran of Troy. Extended family also survive.

There will be no calling hours.

A private Mass will be celebrated at St. Vincent de Paul Church in Albany.

For those who would like to remember Kathleen, the family suggests that memorial contributions be made to Saint Francis Health Care Foundation, 241

North Road, Poughkeepsie, NY 12601-9896.

“ Dear Annette,

I'm so sorry to read of Kathy's death. I remember Kathy during our years at VI. I know your love and concern for her was unending.

She was a very special person, and now rests in Our Lord's arms.

My thoughts and prayers are with you are this time.

Sincerely,
