

Kathleen F. Klingenbeck

August 10, 1954 - December 30, 2010

Albany-Kathleen F. Klingenbeck, 56, died Thursday, December 30, 2010 at the North Adams Regional Hospital. Born in Brooklyn, she was the daughter of the late Melvin and Dorothy Sprague Klingenbeck. She was a tax auditor for the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance. Kathleen was a beautiful woman with many talents; including creating stain glass objects, playing the guitar and a brilliance in research. She also loved animals, especially Jazzpur and Jambalya.

She was the mother of Jazz, Sochani and Nashoa Klingenbeck and Richard Santelli; friend of Steven Brahm; aunt of Joseph and Anthony Brahm; dear friend of Tara Santelli, Maryanne Santelli and Dor McKeon.

Kathleen asked upon her death that her own words be offered in the article of 'thanks to friends and coworkers for all they have done the past few years to help keep me going. Bless all of you.'

Funeral services Wednesday, January 5, 2010 at 10:30 am in Blessed Sacrament Church, Albany where a Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated.

Relatives and friends are invited and may call that same morning after 8:00am in the McVeigh Funeral Home, 208 North Allen Street, Albany.

“ Kathy was a warm and gentle soul. Our time was brief together, but those qualities easily shown thru from the first time we met. I will miss Kathy and wish all of her family and special friends my heartfelt sympathy for the loss of her. I try to remember at times like these that if someone lives in your heart and you think of them always, then they really are never gone.###imported-begin##Joseph Santelli###imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathies to Kathy's family, especially her children. Kathy was a wonderful woman, she will be greatly missed. I remember many years ago when she stepped up to the plate for me on an issue that no one wanted to deal with, everyone was passing the buck. I know just as she watched over my problem, she is there watching over you, she is your guardian angel.##imported-begin##Anna Callaghan##imported-end##

“ I didn't know you were born in Bklyn. I was born there, too. I'm sorry to hear of your passing. I know you've had a long, long illness. So, I can only say, Rest in Peace.

We worked together at the State of N.Y. in the Audit division. You always made those off-campus meetings of the "Annual Tax Updates" a little more bearable and even FUN! with your dry, wry sense of humor. Thank you for that. Rose Corigliano##imported-begin##Rose Corigliano##imported-end##

“ I am saddened of Kathy's passing. She was so full of life when she would teach us the updates. A funny woman who always had a smile on her face. She would always ask about my Scooby Doo memorabilia and if I had gotten anything new. My sympathy goes out to all her loved ones. She will be missed greatly.##imported-begin##Ed VanDenburgh##imported-end##

“ To Kathy's Family and Friends,

Please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. I met Kathy 25 years ago while we were training. I liked her from the get-go. She was such a nice, friendly and helpful person. Through the years with the department she proved to be so valuable to us professionally as well. She has been, and will be sorely missed. May her memory be eternal.##imported-begin##Evie Cosmas Buffalo, NY##imported-end##
