

Kenneth W. Clough

December 12, 1937 - April 26, 2023

Guilderland, NY-Kenneth W. Clough, 85, also known lovingly as “Lefty”, entered eternal life on Wednesday, April 26th, 2023, at home in Guilderland, New York.

Born in Albany, New York, he was the son of the late Herbert and Katherine Cook Clough.

After his retirement from the Times Union, Kenneth stayed active by working at the Albany College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences as a mail room attendant, and volunteering to deliver Meals on Wheels. A devout Roman Catholic, he was also a proud volunteer at the National Shrine of The Divine Mercy.

Kenneth was an avid sports fan who loved the New York Giants, and New York Mets. He especially enjoyed cheering on his children and grandchildren as their biggest fan.

But of all his interests in life, family was most important to him especially his beloved Children and Grandchildren.

Kenneth was preceded in death by his beloved wife of 56 years Joanne S. Clough; proud father of Lynn Calhoun, Dr. Kenneth J. Clough (Maura), Kimberly Karikas (late Mark), Joseph W. Clough, Karen McCarthy (James), Theresa Frey (Keith) Michele Zirilli (Brian), Christine Kanawada, David Clough (Ashley) and Daniel Clough (Kate); cherished grandfather of Christy Hedgcorth, Andrew Clough, Ann Clough, Aidan Clough, Crystal Necatera, Finn McCarthy, Liam McCarthy, Lindsey Frey, Izzy Zirilli, Joseph Winters, Alex Luciano, Kailee Kanawada, Sean Kanawada Jr., Benson Clough, Naiomi Clough, Ephrem Clough; Lucy Clough, Ezekiel Clough, Baby Clough (soon to be born) and great- grandfather of Ashleigh, Dominick, Jayden, Jayce, Laihah and Skylar; Brother of Joyce Clough-Sellie, and Ronald Clough.

“ I loved volunteering with Ken at the Shrine of Divine Mercy, he taught me the ropes and loved sharing with him. I asked about him on Divine Mercy Sunday and will miss him dearly, when I am there, from CT. We loved sharing vet stories but most of all, he loved telling me about his family and his beautiful wife and missed her dearly, he is blessed to have finally joined her. I know Ken is resting peacefully in God's Hands. I will miss you, Ken and will lift you in prayer every time I am at our beautiful Shrine of Divine Mercy.💖🙏
