“ It's been many years since Kevin and I worked together at Bank of New York, always a gentleman with a great sense of humor. Fay you have my deepest sympathy, where has the time gone. Seems like yesterday that we were all at the bank. Bill Preston

“ I don't have one specific memory to share, but I do have years worth of memories that I will hold dear. Uncle Kevin had a fantastic sense of humor, he was proud of his Irish heritage and he was attentive and loving to his family. He was a wonderful man and I will miss him dearly. 💕💕
