

Lawrence F. Scarano Jr

April 3, 1921 - October 26, 2013

Albany-Lawrence F. Scarano Jr, 92, of Albany, beloved husband of Jayne Diange for 66 years entered into rest with his family by his side, Saturday, October 26, 2013.

Born in Albany, he was the son of the late Lorenzo and Carmella Russo Scarano.

He served in the Navy during World War II as a Petty Officer, 1st Class-Pharmacist's Mate. After he was discharged he worked for Normanskill Dairy delivering milk in Albany during the horse and wagon era.

As an avid sportsman since his days as a boy scout in the 1930's, he never missed an opening day of the deer hunting or fishing seasons, until he was in his late eighties.

He was a member of the Pinehaven Country Club and the Italian American Club, where he enjoyed golf and his Tuesday and Friday card games. He was also a member of the VFW 1019-Louis W. Oppenheim Post, Bucchi McTague Post and the Third District Dental Association. He was a licensed dental technician and partner in Northeastern Dental Lab and Kelly-Scarano Dental.

He was predeceased by his brother Robert J. Scarano. He was the loving father of Larry Scarano of Los Angeles, CA, Regina La Gatta (James) of East Greenbush; treasured grandfather of Ashley Arnold (Geoff), Christopher Adriance and Miles Scarano; great grandfather of Justin James Arnold; brother-in-law of Marion Diange of East Hampton, NY, Aurelia Hoffman of Norwich, NY and Eleanor Scarano of Loudonville; survived by 7 nephews and 5 nieces that he was so proud of.

The family wishes to extend their appreciation to the Blue Team, Emergency Room and 210-ICU Staff at the Veterans Administration Hospital.

“ Dear Jane, Larry, Regina and family,

So many memories have just come flooding back. From my dad and he at Normanskill, to our families golf and to our vacations in Saratoga, we were family. I will always remember Larry, your dad with a gentle caring smile. Will also remember his eagerness to help when we needed it and as I recall, we did. I can't help but smile as I look at this photo and know he has gone to join the rest of the gang. Heaven has just received a new light....FOUR!!!!!!.. Love to all and heartfelt sympathy, loved him:)

“ Jayne, Larry, Regina and Family;
On behalf of the members and board of directors of Pinehaven Country Club I would like to express our sincere sympathy on the passing of Larry. Larry and Jayne were members of our club for over 50 years. Larry was a former member of the Board of Directors. Both Larry and Jayne contributed a great deal to Pinehaven. I had the great honor to know Larry for over 35 years. I had the privilege of playing golf with Larry on several occasions and always enjoyed having a glass of wine with him at the Friday card game. Larry was a true gentleman and Pinehaven will not be the same without him, he will be missed.

Condolences,
Mike Van Buren
President Pinehaven Country Club
