“ May the words at Isaiah 25:8 bring you comfort " He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ My deepest sympathies to Lenny and Gavin. He was a wonderful man. Always smiling and was a great conversationalist. I found some photos (that survived the fire) that I didn't even know I had of the family. I will send them to you. I hope they will bring back some lovely memories. I will always remember your Dad/Grandfather.

“ I extend deep heartfelt sympathy to Leonard Seely's family on his passing. Lenny was a true gentleman and kind neighbor who was always willing to do whatever he could to help out those in need. He enjoyed his hobby of flying, going out to lunch, and occasionally attending a Silver Streakers meeting/event. His friendly face will be missed.

“ Lenny always had a smile and a hug every time we got together. He was so genuine. I will always remember him for his videography. I found so many of his videos including my own wedding at my dad Jim's house when we there last year. Lots of Vogel parties and gatherings on those tapes. I plan to have them all converted from VHS to DVD and will make copies to share. Love and peace to you Aunt Joan. Wendy
