April 9, 1969 - September 6, 2021

Lillian K. Wilcox, also known as Mom by those whom she loved and who loved her in return; departed this world and her loving family on September 6, 2021. Lillian was born in Albany, N.Y., on April 9, 1969, she was the daughter of Leona Cooper and Lavern Davis. Lillian married John J. Wilcox on May 29, 1987, and was mother to Jennifer L. Wilcox, Ashly M. Wilcox, Timmothy J. Wilcox, and Zachary J. Wilcox. Besides her children and husband, Lillian is survived by her mother Leona, sisters Londa Vermette, Lisa Davis, and Lucinda Davis, her brother Vern Davis. As well as many nieces, nephews, and extended family.

Lillian was a homemaker whose primary concern in life was the health, happiness, and well-being of her children and loved ones. Lillian's children were her world, whom she loved unconditionally. She would always make sure her children had everything they needed. Lillian also had a love for animals big and small, if she came across an animal in need of a home it soon had one with her. She enjoyed listening to country music Garth Brooks being one of her favorite artists. She enjoyed going out with her family and friends. Above all spending time with her family and children was her favorite thing to do. Her family and friends knew her as a giving and loving woman, who would give even when she had little. If there was someone in need, she would make sure that they, had it. To those who love her know her kind, giving, and loving spirit will always's be in our hearts and by our side forever. As she would say goodbyes are forever, and that she will see us later.
