

Linda A. Zeoli

September 4, 1952 - March 21, 2024

Albany, NY—Linda Zeoli, 71, of Albany, passed away on Thursday, March 21, 2024. She was born on September 4, 1952, in Albany's South End. She was the daughter of Josephine Marchese Castle and Patrolman Frank Castle. She graduated from Vincentian Institute High School and received her Nursing degree (LPN) at Albany Medical Center College and her RN degree from Russell Sage College.

Her 40-year nursing career began at St. Peters. She quickly moved to Albany Medical Center, where she would spend most of her career. During her tenure at AMC, she worked on many specialty floors, including the patient learning center, vascular, and orthopedics. She also worked for many years as a private duty nurse, touching the lives of countless patients. She became a case manager on the pediatrics floor at AMC and, in her last years before retirement, she worked at Anthem Blue.

Although her career was impressive, she felt her greatest accomplishment was her children. She cherished every moment she spent with them, whether it was a family dinner, backyard barbeque, or family vacation. She never wanted to be without her children and grandchildren. She was a member of the Italian American Community Center and a longtime parishioner of Blessed Sacrament Church in Albany.

She was predeceased by the love of her life and husband of 48 years, Mickey Zeoli, her brother-in-laws, Chuck, Angelo (Rose), and Thomas Zeoli, and her best friend, Ann Campagna.

Linda is survived by her son, Frank Zeoli (Nancy), her daughter and caregiver, Maggie Hunt (Jeff), and her two grandchildren, Michael Zeoli II and Josephine Delvalle. She is also survived by her sister Terry Bardwell (Bill), her sister-in-laws Nancy Zeoli and Marie Bubonia (Steve). Her nieces Tiffany Bardwell (Brian), Lisa Zeoli, Brena Fish (Damon) and her nephews Chuck Zeoli (Kim) and Stephen Bubonia III. Family members Barbara Weir, Lisa Kissane (Christopher, Annemarie) and her closest friend Nancy Grace.

Relatives and friends are invited to visit with Linda's family Tuesday, March 26, 2024 4:00 pm to 7:00 pm at McVeigh Funeral Home, 208 North Allen Street, Albany, NY 12206. Please enter the funeral home from the rear parking lot entrance only.

Funeral services Wednesday, March 27, 2024 at 10:30 am at Blessed Sacrament Church, 607 Central Ave. (Father John Bradley Way), Albany, NY 12206 where her Funeral Mass will be celebrated.

The Rite of Committal will be held at St. Agnes Cemetery, Menands, NY immediately following the Mass.

“ Oh, way too many memories! Madison place. Playing in the yard. I loved that house. Family gatherings from our births! I hope she is happy with Aunt Jo, Aunt Angie and the love of her life, Micky. Not to mention, seeing her dad again. In many ways, she was more of a cousin than my biological cousins. Rest in peace Linda.....you deserve it! Love, Chrissy

“ Linda and I became fast friends when we first met in the seventh grade. When we graduated eighth grade, the nuns decorated the auditorium with our names and little slogans about each of us. Linda's was "always a smile." That description of her remained so true throughout her whole life. No matter the challenge, she had a positive outlook that could never be diminished. Oh, I loved her so much! And I am forever grateful that as full and vibrant as her life was, she always had room in it for her old friend from St. Teresa's. Rest in comfort and peace, my friend. I miss you so much, but carry you here in my heart forever. Love, Cynthia

“ Our sincere condolences to all of you , Frankie, Nancy, Maggie, Jeff, Michael and Josey. Our hearts are broken for you. Take comfort in Knowing her love of Lord and knowing you will see her again in Gods Kingdom in Heaven. Aunt Linda, was a very special person to a lot of people and to me as well. She always had a kind word for me or a hug when needed as a child growing up. She always encouraged me and wanted nothing but the best for me, my wife and our children. She was like that to so many people and touched many hearts along the way of her life. You raised a great family and showed love always. We love you all and send , hugs, love and prayers. Rest easy Aunt Linda, we love you, Chickey and Kim 🙄❤️🙏
