As tears are streaming down my face trying to keep my composure. I can't believe that God took her home. This was the most amazing and beautiful tribute to your mom that I have ever seen. What a beautiful wonderful woman she was. But her hubby needed her I guess more then her family as she needed him. My condolences to the family of such a loved , generous, giving and caring person. I will always miss you my friend. Your spirit will live in your children's hearts and others forever . You left behind such beautiful children to carry on your legacy. You are and always will be in my heart.

“ Karen and family: I will always remember your mom and her smile she always had. I am sure she smiled when she saw your dad with his hand extended to take her with him in Heaven. I am sure they are both happy and are once again together in God's kingdom. As we feel empty and miss them it is a certainty that she left behind many wonderful memories and all the love she had. Hold onto that close to your heart. She is still with you as is your dad in memory and in heart. I love you and send my deepest condolences. xxoo

“ To Carolyn and the Nolan Family -

We are very sorry to learn of the passing of your mother, Lois. She was indeed a blessing and a beacon of light to all who knew her, and especially in the hearts of the many foster children whose lives she touched with her love and generous spirit. At this difficult time, may you be consoled and comforted by the many wonderful memories you have and the knowledge that her spirit will always be there to guide you in the years ahead.

Sincerely, Don LeClair and Jim Mariani

“ Sending condolences to the Nolan family for the loss of your mother. We remember your mom as a truly kind person with always a smile on her face. As you mourn her loss, you can share sweet memories of her exceptional life and know that she is safe now, in heaven, an angel, reunited with your father. Karen's FB quote says it all....."My mother taught me everything except, how to live without her.."
