

Lorraine Miggael Ferris

June 22, 1930 - July 25, 2013

Colonie: Lorraine Miggael Ferris, 83, of Colonie died July 25, 2013 in Rensselaerville, New York. She was born and educated in Albany and had lived there most of her life. Lorraine was a homemaker and also worked at Key Bank for 24 ½ years, retiring in June 1989 as an Assistant Vice President. During her retirement she worked as a Travel Escort for Boscov's TravelCenters on a part time basis. She was a member of St. Vincent de Paul's Catholic Church; an officer and a member of the Albany Fort Orange Chapter #1593 A.A.R.P; past member of Colonie Elks Lodge Ladies Auxiliary; past member of Christian Brothers Academy Mothers Association and past officer and member of the American Institute of Banking.

Lorraine was the loving wife of the late Robert M. Ferris; loving and devoted daughter of the late Carl T. Miggael and Anna Marie Daly Miggael; loving mother of Karen Ferris-Fearnside, Niskayuna, NY and Stephen P. Ferris of Poestenkill, NY; loving sister of the late Carl T. Miggael and Ronald E. Miggael; loving grandmother of Matthew R., Jeffrey R. and Brittany L. Fearnside, Niskayuna, NY; She is also survived by several nieces and nephews and great grandson Ryan R. Fearnside.

Lorraine will be remembered by all those whose lives she touched because of her love of life, her warm sense of humor, her beautiful smile and her contagious laugh; she will truly be missed by all who knew her.
