

Lorraine A. Kross

December 19, 1923 - April 23, 2011

NEW HARTFORD, NY - Lorraine A. DeSeve Kross, 87, died April 23, 2011 at The Presbyterian Home in New Hartford, NY. Born in Albany, she was the daughter of Charles and Anna Blatzheim DeSeve, also of Albany. She was predeceased by her husband of 55 years, Harry William Kross, Jr.

Lorraine graduated from Vincentian Institute in 1941, and then from State Teachers College in 1945. She went on to teach many years of elementary education in the Guilderland Central schools. She married Harry in December of 1945 as he mustered out of the US Navy, and they lived and raised their family in the house he built himself, in Westmere.

Lorraine was the mother of James (Carol) of Seattle ,WA, David (Candy) of Latham, NY, Ann Marie Rowlands (David) of New Hartford, NY, and Beth K. Barker (Timothy), of Brentwood, TN, and she was the loving and doting grandmother to 11 grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren, and many nieces, and nephews.

Lorraine was a communicant of Christ the King Catholic Church in Guilderland, until moving to New Hartford in 2001. Her greatest passions were reading, playing bridge and golf, hiking and camping in the Adirondacks, and being with family. Lorraine was adventurous; travelling to camp and fish in Alaska, and touring parts of Europe.

Relatives and friends may call at McVeigh funeral home, 208 North Allen Street, Albany, Thursday, April 28th from 9 am to 10:30 am, prior to a Mass of Christian burial to be celebrated at Christ the King Church at 11:30 .

Entombment will follow the Mass at our Lady Help of Christians Cemetery, Glenmont. Staff at the Cedar wing of the Presbyterian Home are gratefully thanked for their constant kindness and loving care. Donations in Lorraine's memory to the activities department at the Presbyterian Home, (PO Box 1144, New Hartford, NY 13413), would be appreciated.
