“ resting assured that no one will see this I'm writing to you dad cuz I know you see it. I know you see alot and I know you are with me always. What you think of the wall `we did good didn't we. I know you know how much I miss you this is much harder than I ever thought it would be. I do not regret one minute we spent together not even when you drove me crazy talking about hitler and stalin and mo. sucks you can see me and I can't see you I miss you soooo much. I miss your witty comments that help me deal with the crazies. had a great time with red this weekend somehow I know you had something to do with it. I will keep keepin on I will not recoil from my life it's a good one even when I think I can't go on without you I can because you raised a very strong person in me. You taught me sooo much I was soooo lucky that the greatest man on earth was my father. I love you :)###imported-begin###me###imported-end###

“You can shed tears that Mr Glenn is gone,
or you can smile because he has lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that he'll come back,
or you can open your eyes and see all he's left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see him,
or you can be full of the love you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,
or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.
You can remember him only that he is gone,
or you can cherish his memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind,
be empty and turn your back.
Or you can do what he'd want:
smile, open your eyes, love and go on.”

“ Like the Druids, Glenn is legendary in his own class. I have missed our numerous chats the past year. Sometimes things beyond our control take place and the tides bring change. Lives become busier and distracting, but our feelings for those we love remain the same. Although, we do not keep relationships as they were, our love remains the same. It is comforting to know you are in perfect health and have moved to a perfect world. Barb and I hope you had a great visit with Christian in Germany, and hope you already found Cathy. We miss her so, and know she will look after you and be the great company she always was. How lucky can you be. You always believed you were a Druid. Many historians will say they were a mystery and not know a whole lot about them. Some believe they were one of the most important social groups among the nobles in Celtic Society. Strong to judge, highly intelligent, and quick to exempt from strong governmental rules and controls. Oh how that would be you- Glenn. At the same time, the Druids were highly respected by those who knew and understood them, feared and not so loved by those who did not. That would also be you- Glenn. We will miss your presence in this world, but are sure you will make your presence known in your new and perfect world. We are glad to have had the pleasure and experience to cross our lives and paths. It extended from friendship to family, and for that we are grateful. Our relationships and love for you and your family will live on until we meet again in that perfect world.

Love and Peace

“ In the end there are three things that last.....Faith, Hope and Love. And the greatest of these are LOVE.

Our memories of you will be happy ones, filled with bright sunny days and laughing times. Our tears will dry before the sun, with happy memories when life is done. You will be missed.

Our sincere compassion and condolences to Bea, Cherie, Frank, Bobbie, Terry, Liz and Families.

“ Words were never easy to find with Pa, and even though he never wore his love for everyone on his sleeve, we all always knew...

Hope you find peace and happiness above Pa, as you watch over us all. And even though we never got to tell each other often, we love you too and always have.

Peace be with you and God bless###imported-begin##James Tarantino##imported-end##

“ He who has gone, so we but cherish his memory, abides with us, more potent, nay, more present than the living man.

Hold tight to memories for comfort.

Lean on your friends for strength, and always remember how much you are cared about.

As you comprehend this profound loss, let yourself cry knowing each tear is a note of love rising to the heavens.

Like a bird singing in the rain, let grateful memories survive in time of sorrow.

And you should always know, wherever you may go, No matter where you are, he will never be far away.

Perhaps they are not the stars, but rather openings in heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy.

In the night of death, hope sees a star, and listening love can hear the rustle of a wing.

May you take comfort in knowing an angel is watching over you.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

Peace, prayers and blessings.

“ My heart broke when I saw this this morning, I'm still crying. I remember how outspoken he was, how he could rub some the wrong way, but deep inside I think he had a special soul. He was always kind to me, welcomed hugs, and I was liked by him. That can sometimes mean more than love. I remember working with him at Don's and even going to the movies with him. We saw "Klute"! of all movies at the time. But now I laugh because we went for coffee later and laughed about the movie. As we left the movie he said, "that was a nice fairy tale, lets get coffee." LMAO. But I also remember him cutting the tv cord because we were all watching "Guess who's coming to dinner". Remember that Aunt Bea? LMAO again. He did have a mean streak, but that's what made him so lovable. You always knew where you stood with Uncle Glen. Years have passed and I haven't seen many family members in a very long time. Love to you all, please try to only remember the good things about people. It makes life so much easier. God Bless you all. Love Mary###imported-begin##Mary Hobart###imported-end##
