“ My deepest sympathy to the family over Lou's passing. I was the Secretary in the Bureau of Guidance and Attendance from 1955-1967 and Margie Egan was the Clerk. Lou brightened up the office every day he was in with his smile and pleasant personality. If there were dark days, he would perk us up. Everyone felt it. He treated Margie and I to lunches at Jack's on special occasions. He was at my wedding (1959) at Blessed Sacrament Church. We missed him when he had to go into the districts and/or conferences. No one cheered us up like Lou did. In 1967-68 Dr. Irving Ratchick (also a cheerful man) was moved to a new position as Assistant Commissioner of Chapter I and Lou was chosen as his right hand man. My niece, Mary Catherine Fiato, became his Secretary and was also at her wedding (1970). I left in 1967 to have my second baby and took several years off. I cherished those first twelve years, six months and no one could replace Lou's spirit. I will always remember him. Thank you for the memories.###imported-begin###Jean O'Dea Kaczmarek###imported-end##

“ I worked w/ Mr. Pasquini at NYSED late 60's to 70's. He was my parents' ages, & he was a great guy-always w/a smile on his face. His daughter RoseMary went to VI w/my sister Beth Cunningham. He, Charlotte Jewett, & I went to Lake Placid on a business trip together in state car, & I think something happened to the car, or tire. He was always respectful of his employees, but jovial too. He will be missed by all who knew him.##imported-begin##Joanne Cunningham Nicholson##imported-end##
