“ It is with great sadness that I learned of your dear mother's passing. Lou was the wife of my cousin Raymond, a son of my mother's (Angie Crodelle Daniele) brother Philip. When I was a teenager I idolized Lou. She was the most wonderful and elegant woman. I have always thought of her that way. My condolences to you, her children, and your families.

“ Maria, Gregory and Raymond, I'm so sorry for your loss and feel so bad that we can't be there. I can't stop thinking about Auntie Lou and what an awesome lady she was, I'm proud to be related to her. The only thing making me feel better is knowing she is with Nanny, Poppy and my Mom. All my love xoxox!! Kirsten

“ Dear Maria, Gregory, and Raymond,
The Fay family is mourning the loss of our lifelong friend and neighbor. We send you all our love. My parents are crushed seeing their best party-loving friend going to join her beloved husbands, Raymond and James, but know that she lived such such a fun and joy filled life.

“ I loved my cousin Lucille. I can remember going to the Moon Tavern with my Dad when I was a child and seeing her and Marie there. I also looked forward to seeing her at D'Raymond's when she was the Hostess. Lucille was always so happy and delightful. Although we rarely saw each other over the years, I would always think of her when I visited the restaurant and was proud to be a Salamida.

May God bless and give her family the comfort needed at this time.

Love, Donna
