“ *Mark, Mike, Neal, Madeline and Tommy,
We were sorry to learn of Marcia's passing. When one of the Morris Street gang dies I think we all recall the special place it was. Milsteins, the convent, the Little League, the VI CCD, the glass school, all the personalities living between Partridge and Main are part of who we are today. As was mentioned in Bob Milstein's obituary, Jake and Ida's son, "we all learned the basic values of decency, responsibility, integrity and community."
We are with you during this sad and reflective time.

“ To the Mahoney/Breslin Family: I was so saddened to learn of Marcia's passing. I was just thinking of her the other day wondering how she was doing. As I read the tributes here, I agree with all of them. While CEO of Hope House, Marcia was an incredible Board Member who supported me through thick and thin. She was kind, astute and forthright with her unmatched commitment to Hope House. I also knew her as a wife, mother, daughter and sister who cared deeply about everyone in her immediate and extended family. She brought this same selfless spirit to her students at Albany High School. We've all lost a wonderful human being and I am grateful to have known her.

“ To the Breslin family,
Please accept my heartfelt condolences on the passing of Marcia.
In my days at LaSalle, I do not believe I ever encountered a more passionate, faithful and dedicated servant, not only to the mission of LaSalle but to the all of those in need. When you got Marcia committed to something, you knew the entire Breslin clan came along with her, to ensure things would be successful. God bless her, and my thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ Marsha carried on the traditions of giving to others she learned from her parents by always caring for those less fortunate, the neediest of individuals, always. She was fiercely loyal, lived with great kindness and her smile will be always remembered!
