

Margaret P. Nania

March 17, 1933 - August 31, 2022

Loudonville, NY – On 8/31/2022, surrounded by her family, Margaret Viola Nania at the age of 89 entered Eternal Life after a brief illness.

Born on March 17, 1933, in Albany, New York, Margaret was the daughter of the late Joseph and Angelina (Cassello) Viola. Margaret spent many of her early years working at her parent's store, The Dove Street Fruit Garden in downtown Albany which often brought back fond memories and stories. Margaret spent 45 years working for the New York State Labor Department. Upon her retirement, she enjoyed traveling with her siblings and friends whether it was a simple day trip or a trip abroad.

Margaret enjoyed playing Bingo, her social clubs, knitting and crocheting and most of all baking. Her mini cheesecakes were often gone before dessert was served.

Margaret would often brag about her grandchildren and carry picture books containing the various exploits of the young Benjamin, Ethan and Gianna Nania.

Margaret is survived by her son Thomas and wife Jamie and their three children Benjamin, Ethan and Gianna of Mechanicville, NY. She is also survived by her brother Joseph Viola along with several nieces and nephews.

Margaret is predeceased by her husband Emilio (Mel) Nania , her brother Ralph Viola and wife Sadie and her sister Loretta Gadani and her husband Ettore.

The family would like to extend special thanks to Shannon Koper and Lori Salisbury for their constant support that they extended to our family in the care of my mother. This meant a lot to our family.
