“ What a beautiful soul. Margaret was my best friend in high school. She made me laugh till the back of my head hurt and tears streamed down my face. She was friends of all, the popular, the quirky, the rich, the poor. Love the family so much! She is enjoying the reunion in heavens gardens with her relatives and pets that have transitioned. God Bless her 🕊️

“ Margaret shines in my mind as one of the most outstanding people I’ve had the pleasure of sharing a part of life with. As high school friends go, she was the best. Unique, funny and so very caring. The perfect photo of her bursts my memory bank with nothing but wonderful visions. To Margaret’s family, friends and all who loved her beautiful ways of being Margaret, my heart to yours with condolences.

“ I went to Holy Names with Margaret in the 1970’s- she was hysterical and so so smart. She always had us laughing. The re-enactment of the Johnny Carson show was epic. I’m so sorry she died and I extend my deepest sympathies to her family.
