“ Meg was a Icon as she worked in the same building that I work at. Always had a bread or a healthy salad to share with the whole office building. Its been 3 days since she passed and somehow I think that I will see her again in Heaven. I wrote a song just tonight as JESUS rose on the 3rd day my hope is to somehow see her again in Heaven

Here's the song and I will sing FOREVER in her memory:

I'm not sure why

I'm not sure why

That you had to go

that you had to Go

I really wish that I had the chance

TO really Say Goodbye...

But you had to leave so quick so Quickly...

and I'm not sure if you really felt

what I feel today

Its GOTTA get better than this

I am soooo soorry for your Anguish

And my hope for you is SOO STRONG

I'd like to be able meet you someday again

MY HOPE... MY HOPE ITS SOOO STRONG

that you and I will someday be together agian...

Yes, in that Mansion in the SKY

YOU, YOU were FLOWER in God's Garden that he picked and called BEAUTIFUL

We miss you sooo much

More than you know

You were a Light and Beacon

for others to follow

So PLEASE TELL ME WHY>>>>

I wish you were here

so that you were NEAR

I love you soooo Much

More than you know

and I can't remember the last conversation

*I'm so sorry that you had to go.....
Before I'd Know
That you were GONE.....*

LOVE YOU MEG FURLONG!! and will miss you FOREVER##imported-begin##Michelle Peters##imported-end##

“ I enjoyed working with Meg at Roberts RE back in the mid 80's. She was always very helpful, gracious and a true professional. I continued to run into Meg in the Pine Hills over the past few years where she always offered to volunteer for neighborhood events. My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this time of loss. Shannon Hickman##imported-begin##Shannon Hickman##imported-end##
