

Margaret M. Link

November 11, 1927 - November 8, 2010

Slingerlands-Margaret 'Peggy' Link died peacefully on November 8, 2010 surrounded by her loving family.

Peggy was born in Troy, NY on November 11, 1927 to the late Leonard J. and Veronica Hickey. She attended Vincentian Institute and graduated from the College of Saint Rose in 1949 where she developed lifelong friendships. Bridge games and 'luncheons' were a highlight in her later years.

She loved to travel and was fortunate enough to see many parts of the world. However, her number one love was her family: her late husband, her sons, grandchildren and great grandchildren. She loved telling them stories, the Holidays and taking them shopping where they could 'make out like a bandit'.

Peggy was a devoted mother to three sons and would also occasionally substitute teach in the Albany Parochial School System. As an empty nester she went to work at the New York State DMV until her retirement in 1992. She spent many winters in Naples, FL and had many friends who also shared her passion for Bridge and luncheon activities.

She was the beloved wife of the late Paul A. Link who died in 2009, loving mother of Peter (Joan) of Slingerlands, Thomas of Albany and the late John (Debbie) of East Greenbush. She is also survived by eight grandchildren:

Kelly (Derek)Cerza, Katey (Tony)Brown, Rachel(Tony) Moore, Kimberly (Christopher) Maiello, Christina Link, Andrea Link, Kristin Link and Leonard Link.

“ Just learned of Peggy's death. I so looked forward to her return to The Glades in Naples, Florida for a couple months this winter. She and I always had a warm embrace when we would see each other. Even tho whenever we were partners at Bridge we never got good cards and always got poor scores we'd laugh about it. She was a good friend and I will sure miss her.
