

Maria F. Hernandez

October 20, 1922 - April 22, 2017

Albany-Maria Flores Hernandez, 94, entered Eternal Life Saturday, April 22, 2017 at home after a brief illness. Born in Comerio, Puerto Rico, she was the daughter of the late Juan Flores and Laura Pagan Flores.

Maria was the Matriarch of an extensive family, and took pride in her children and grandchildren successes. Known for her love of God and family, she was a woman of strong will and unshakable faith.

She always emphasized the importance of Christian values and the virtues of hard work and education. Maria will also be remembered for her amazing memory and beautiful smile.

The family would like to gratefully acknowledge the attention of Dr. Lev Barats, and the efforts of Accent Healthcare and The Community Hospice.

She was the wife of the late Julio Hernandez II; mother of Willie Hernandez (Gilda), Jorge Hernandez, Micky Jimenez-Hernandez, Julio Hernandez (Martha), David Hernandez (Nancy) and the late Harry Hernandez; sister of Providencia Ferreras, and the late Rosa DeAldana and Catin Rivera; 17 grandchildren, 8 great grandchildren and many nieces and nephews survive.

Relatives and friends are invited to visit with Maria's family Wednesday, April

“ I watched the video of your mom playing maracas with George on congas and grandkids playing clave and dancing. What a wonderful scene of joy, merriment and love. She was smiling throughout. In this time of grief I'm reminded of these lyrics by Rafael Hernandez: "Canta si olvidar quieres, corazón canta si aliviar quieres tu dolor". Abrazos.
