

Marilyn E. Webber

July 12, 1925 - November 27, 2013

Albany-Marilyn E. Webber, 88, died November 27, 2013 at the Hospice of Arizona, Sun City West, AZ. Born in Ruskin Nebraska, she was the daughter of the late Jonce and Grace Thayer Magee.

Marilyn enjoyed reading, gardening and crocheting afghans and lap robes for the local cancer center. She was a 40 year member of the Albany Church of Christ, where her son Dennis Webber was minister in the late 1970's. She will be remembered by her church family as someone who was always willing to help people out, serving quietly behind the scenes. She loved her church family, and was loved by many.

She was the wife of the late Edmund F. Webber Jr; mother of Terry Maxfield, Gail Cook (Page), Ruth Greenhouse (Jeff), James Webber (Joyce), Neil Webber (Vanessa) and the late Dennis Webber (Linda); sister of the late Maxine, Garth, Ruth, Joyce, Neil and James; survived by 15 cherished grandchildren, many dear great grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be private at the convenience of the family. To leave a message for the family, please visit www.McveighFuneralHome.com

Contributions in Marilyn E. Webber's memory may be made to Hospice of Arizona, 13951 W. Meeker Blvd., Sun City West, AZ 85375.
