“ I have known Marge for over 50 years. During my teenage years and beyond, I was welcomed into her house, her life and her heart almost everyday. I learned her no- nonsense approach to life, her love of fun and a good laugh and how to be compassionate - lessons which I have used throughout my own life. Through the years, our lives went off in different directions but our paths intersected from time to time. We could reconnect in an instant and it would be like yesterday because Marge was just that warm and loving. I feel blessed to have known this wonderful lady and will always be grateful to Mary Jo (who has her mother's heart) for sharing her with me. Mary Jo and famiy, you are in my thoughts and prayers. Love, Fran
