

Marjorie M. Connors

November 7, 1935 - December 11, 2010

Albany-Marjorie M. Connors, 75, died Saturday, December 11, 2010 in the Hospice Inn at St. Peter's Hospital with her family at her side.

Born in Albany on November 7, 1935, she was the daughter of the late James J. Connors and Marjorie Gleason Connors. Marge graduated from The College of Saint Rose in 1957 and became a teacher at School 20 in Albany. After receiving her Masters Degree from Boston University she became the reading consultant for the Elementary Education Office of the Albany School District. She later was the Administration Assistant for the District and retired in 1995.

She was the loving sister of Mary Kerwin of Latham; beloved aunt of Gerald (Michele) of Brunswick, Michael of Albany, and Kathleen (James) of Watervliet; proud great aunt of 9 month old Makayla Shannon Veshia who brought her so much joy in her last months. Marge is also survived by several cousins, and predeceased by her dear brother, Brother James Connors, FSC.

“ So many photos of long past family gatherings include Margie. I remember the loving way she treated us, her younger cousins, and later, how wonderful she was to my mom, her "Aunt Dot". May she rest in the peace and loving arms of Christ Jesus.

“ We are so saddened on hearing the news of Margie's death. She will definitely be missed by us and am sure of everyone she knew. She was so kind to all. We will never forget what she had done for our mothr/mother-in-law, Dorothy Rossman.

Margie was so upbeat. She never had ill will for anyone.

We are thankful that we were blessed having her in our family.

Best Wishes to all of you and may the cherished memories of Margie always be with you.

“ Margie was a sweetheart - a caring & loving person. She was a true lady. She saw the goodness in everyone. Champion of the Albany district spelling bee, master of organization. She ensured that all 12 elementary buildings had enough textbooks at the start of the school year, & were ready for the spring annual exams. Principals depended on her. She was a wonderful friend & mentor to me. I will really miss her.##imported-begin##Denise Garrah##imported-end##

“ So saddened when I got the news. Such an amazing woman full of kindness that extended further than I could ever put into words. She'll be missed by so many, but I know the memories of her will live on in all everyone's hearts. Rest in peace and God Bless Cousin Margie.##imported-begin##Theresa Rossman##imported-end##
