My heart hurts for your family. Many prayers are going out from my mother (Gloria Gallagher) my brother Tony. I hope you find peace in your hearts that Mark is at peace. I got to know him more when working with him at Abrookin (Albany High). He was a very kind and sensitive good man.

“ I worked at Abrookin with Mark, and he greeted me in the morning with a smile and was always helpful when I needed him. We would have great conversations about education and he would always leave me with a joke to lighten the mood.
