“ Dear Susan and Lindsey - with heartfelt sympathy in the loss of your beloved Martha. What a sweet and kind friend to our dear Mom Carmella. I so enjoyed time spent with you while we were assisting with meals.
In friendship - and keeping you close in thoughts and prayers, “ Martha was a wonderful loving and caring mother to whom family was everything.

Although diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis which over the years eventually resulted in her inability to care for herself she was very accepting of her disease and never ever complained. In fact she would always say, no negatives only positives!

With a smile on her face she always addressed everyone as dolly and always viewed the world with her glass half full. So when remembering Martha keep a smile on your faceDolly.
