

Mary A. Archino

December 28, 1924 - November 30, 2020

Albany-Mary (Aliberti) Archino 95 peacefully passed in her sleep on Monday, November 30, 2020 at Our Lady of Mercy Life Center in Guilderland.

Born at home on Lansing Street in Albany's South End on December 28, 1924 to Florence (Giunta) and Joseph Aliberti. Her parents emigrated from Sicily, Italy through Ellis Island and settled in Albany, NY. She was the first in her family to be born in America, the second eldest, and last surviving sibling to Ann (Charles) Gitto, Anthony (Goldie) Aliberti, Mildred (Louis) DiDio, and Samuel (Clara) Aliberti. She was the widow of Joseph Archino, a neighborhood guy, who she married in 1949 at St. John's Church in Albany. They were married for 59 years until the time of his death in 2008. She is survived by one devoted daughter, Teri (the late John) Fisher of Glenmont, and two loving grandsons, Andrew Fisher of Cohoes and Jeffrey Fisher of Glenmont as well as many nieces and nephews.

Mary attended St. John's Elementary School and Phillip Schuyler High School in Albany, NY. In her youth, she enjoyed dancing with friends at the YMCA in Troy, NY, swimming at the Mid-City pool complex in Menands, and vacationing in Hampton Beach N.H. She began working at a young age to help her family with finances, was a dedicated worker, and had an assortment of jobs beginning at the Perry Glove Factory, Whitney's, and the Myers department stores on North Pearl Street. During WWII, when many men had to leave their jobs to serve our country, she took a position at the Watervliet Arsenal making parts for Howitzer guns. After spending time as a housewife and mother, she was employed at the NYS Department of Correctional Services and for over 18 years she was well known as the City of Albany School Crossing Guard at New Scotland and So. Main Avenues in Albany, NY, where she met many nice friends, retiring in 1994.

She loved working, helping people, and spending time with her daughter and grandsons. She was a wonderful cook and enjoyed watching cooking shows and sharing her meals with family and friends. She also enjoyed sewing, embroidery, gardening, drawing, and bingo.

The family thanks her wonderful neighbors on Cardinal Ave. for their kindness over the years, the caring staff at Atria of Guilderland, Peregrine Senior Living, and Our Lady of Mercy, all communities where Mary has lived during the past three years.

Relatives and friends are invited to visit with Mary's family Thursday, December 3, 2020 4:00 pm to 7:00 pm at McVeigh Funeral Home, 208 North Allen Street, Albany, NY 12206.
