“ I was sorry to hear of Mary Jane's passing. She was my patient for many years and I always looked forward to her visits. She was always upbeat and brought a bright and cheerful presence to the office. On my birthday I could look forward to a greeting card from Mary Jane. My sympathy and compassion go to her family and friends. Lawrence Perlmutter, MD

“ Dear Michael and Maureen,

Your mother embodied beauty and grace in all forms. You were both a continual source of joy to her and you honored her so with the tender care you took to ensure her comfort and peace.

I have terrific memories of your mother and father coming to pick up my parents, Paul and Fran Russo, to go out to dinner. There was always a wonderful juxtaposition between your dad's quick wit and your mom's gentle chiding. Their energy and obvious love for each was a delight to behold. I'm imagining those two are having a reunion filled with incredible joy and gentle laughter.

Love and prayers go out to you and your families.
