“ We were so sorry to hear of Mary's passing. She was our across-the-street neighbor for many years, and our mother, Edie's, companion at Bingo. She always had something funny to say, and was so kind to Edie and to us when her health started failing.

Our thoughts are with you all...we will remember her with a smile.##imported-begin##Lori & Mark Dorry##imported-end##

“ Teresa, Janet & Elaine,

Our deepest sympathies on the passing of your beloved mother.

She was a remarkable lady who was a very special part of our family. We have many wonderful memories of the various Carlino family events she attended. We will miss the picnics in our yard where she, Mom and Dad share stories of the “old” days.

May the beautiful memories and fun times you shared bring you comfort during this difficult time.
