“ Some and most of my earliest memories are with Grandma. I spent a lot of time with her by myself and had a strong bond as a child to her. I will always remember walks down the street in the afternoon before “supper” where we would get ice cream 🍦 before dinner . She also made me have a strong love for pork chops and applesauce with brown gravy. I will always remember our tea parties with her. I can confidently say my love of tea (having a cup now) vegan with her. I would fill my kiddie tea set with heavily sweetened ice tea and lemons. I would pour it out of my tiny tea cup with Grandma and enjoy our time together. I’m grateful I got to spend some time with you in my adult years more recently and I’m grateful that you had so many loving grandkids nearby your side as well. You will always have a special place in my heart. You are very loved now and always.

“ Tracy, my condolences to you and your family. I remember meeting your mom only once when you lived off of Cottage Ave. She seemed so pleasant. If only, at times, we could rewind the time. Stay strong and treasure the memories.

Huge hug,

“ I wish miss you Aunt Maureen. I will always remember those weekends at Aunt Sue's where we laughed and laughed and laughed, those weekends with Uncle Terry, and our time babysitting the grandchildren. You were always such a warm, loving, and precious person.

I love you eternally.

“ Thank you for the precious memories of the bond we shared Mom. I always enjoyed listening to your stories, watching old movies, and listening to Patsy Cline and Sinatra with you. I could not have asked for a better mother-in-law. You were a kind compassionate woman, and a loving grandmother to my children. Thank you for always reminding me to look up to Him. Thank you always for having kept me and the children in your prayers.

During difficult times, you always managed to make me smile through your laughter which I can still hear.

Whether at the grocery store, a ride in the car (yes, the gas tank is full, and your pocket book is safe, and the doors are locked), in church or gathering for a meal, my love for you is a celebration that brings tears of joy.

I sure hope they have ice cream, cookies and ice tea waiting for you.

You will always be in my heart, on my mind and in my prayers. I will miss talking to you.

Wishing your loved ones comfort and peace in the days ahead.

May your memory be eternal 🙏
