“ We shared stories of the family today. So much fun and laughter between the girls in Laughlintown. The house is still there with the memories in the walls and ground well kept. I was so sad to hear of Maxi's passing. Aunt Betty Darr

“ It was sad to read of the passing of another member of the Oakwood Ave. family. I have great summertime memories of sitting on the front steps talking with Mr. and Mrs Dortic, especially listening to Carl's stories, hoping maybe at some point somebody would offer me a beer. I often thought that Mrs. Dortic was very kind and had a heart of gold. I'm sure she will be missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing her. She will be in our thoughts, Brian Burke...you know...Whitey!
