

Melissa A. Vasquez

April 21, 1986 - August 27, 2024

Albany, NY-Melissa Arlene Vasquez was granted her angel wings on August 27, 2024.

Melissa, known as Missy, was born on April 21, 1986, at a German US Air Force Base to Samuel Vasquez and Yasmin Delestre. The family later returned to the States, where Missy was raised in the picturesque Catskills of New York and attended Hunter-Tannersville Central School.

Missy was known for loving hard and her generous spirit. Her bright smile, big-heartedness, and vibrant fashion brought joy to those around her. Missy was a beautiful butterfly that treasured moments spent with family and beloved pets.

Missy found happiness and peace in crafting, sketching, and painting. She could spend hours bedazzling and stringing up stunning dreamcatchers, not one the same but each a reflection of her artistic talent. Her memory will be cherished for the warmth and creativity she brought into the world.

Missy is survived by her loving parents and spouses, Samuel Vasquez and Jen Brand of Haines Falls, NY and Yasmin and Candace Delestre-Wood of Albany, NY; siblings and spouses, Jasmine and Nathan St Denny, Charlene Vasquez and Sam Vasquez of Raleigh, NC; maternal grandmother Lou Nieves of Lexington NY; and many loving extended family members.

Kindly join us on Saturday, August 31, 2024 for a celebration of life. Visiting hour is from 12-1:00pm followed by a remembrance service at 1pm at McVeigh Funeral Home, 208 North Allen Street, Albany, NY 12206. Please enter the funeral home from the rear parking lot entrance only.

Black attire is optional; we encourage wearing colors, as Missy loved them
In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in memory of Melissa Vasquez to National Alliance on Mental Illness (donate.nami.org)
