“ Mike was one of my best friends in high school, more than 65 years ago. We continued our friendship with regular phone calls in recent years. I always looked forward to and enjoyed those conversations. Well-versed in many subjects, Mike particularly loved the opera and the fine arts. He had an engaging personality, made friends easily, was caring, thoughtful and humble. He was truly a Renaissance man.

“ Funny story On a cold winter day in Milwaukee, around 1957, Mike and I were walking to his house when he said, "lets throw a snowball and a car, They never stop" Well, he chased us in his car for a hour while we hid among the houses. Exhausted, we finally lost him. Not one of our finest hours.
