

Mina A. Hession

May 9, 1917 - January 28, 2013

Albany-Mina A. Hession, 95, died Monday, January 28, 2013. Born in Rensselaer, she was the daughter of the late John and Margaret Carr Fogarty. She was predeceased by her beloved husband of more than five decades, John J. Hession, the well known baritone and soloist.

Mina graduated from St. John's Academy in Rensselaer. With one year of secretarial college, she worked for many years as administrative secretary for the Regional Postmaster General, downtown Albany.

Mina's passing follows that of her sisters Dolores M. Flanigan and Margaret Williams. She is survived by her brother John J. Fogarty of Los Angeles and sisters-in-law Mary Sleasman (Jack), Liz Hession, Bernadette Vermette, as well as her brother-in-law F. Patrick Hession of Long Island.

Mina was a beloved aunt to several generations, including her nieces Margaret St. Louis (Jacques) of Oregon, Karen Phillips (Bill) of Albany, and nephews, Mark Flanigan (Beth) of Maryland and Terrence Williams of Albany.

Over the years, John and Mina's time, love and generosity flowed to brothers, sisters, nieces, nephews and godchildren. Their kindness, grace and exemplary love for each other are deeply missed.

Mina's family thanks the staff at the Eddy Village Green for their professional excellence and constant loving and compassionate care.

“ Jere was part of the heart and especially the soul of the League of California Cities where I wroekd and was priviledged to know both him and Madeleine for many years. His genuinely good heart was reflected in his smile, the twinkle in his eyes and his kindness to all. He doesnâ€™t need to be afforded sainthood in death, as heâ€™d already achieved that status in life. Although my relationship to the Meloâ€™s was strictly work related; Iâ€™m sure thousands of Californians share my feelings that this is not just a communal loss, but rather a personal loss. My sympathy extends to Jereâ€™s family, friends and colleagues throughout the state; the world. RIP Jere.Liz Birmingham, Sacramento, CA.##imported-begin##Kalai##imported-end##
