

Nadja Aliberti

August 25, 1919 - March 27, 2014

Voorheesville-On March 27,2014, Nadja Aliberti, age 94, peacefully passed to eternal life at home in Voorheesville NY. Nadja was the beloved wife of late Joseph A. Aliberti.

A lifelong resident of Albany, Nadja loved her life as a wife, daughter, sister, mother, mother-in-law, grandmother and great-grand mother.

For several years, she also worked outside the home with the DeWitt Clinton Hotel and Albany Medical Center Hospital having retired in 1970. She was a graduate of Philip Schuyler High School and a communicant of St. James Parish in Albany.

She was most proud to have enjoyed and celebrated 72 years of marriage with her late beloved husband Joe. Nadja is survived by a daughter Patricia Catalfamo and her husband Dominick, Woodbridge, VA and a son Joseph and his wife Janet, Voorheesville, NY. Also survived by grandchildren Cheryl Grella and her husband John, Hampton, NH and Michael Catalfamo and his wife Heather, Lorton, VA and great grandchildren, Joseph, Luke and Juliana Grella and Anthony and Nicholas Catalfamo. Nadja was predeceased by her sisters Helen and Jenny Orloff.

Nadja's family wishes to thank the St. Peter's Hospice team - Terry, Mona, Sally, Diana, Joel, Michelle, Corrine, Dr. Sharma, plus Robert Quimby, MD, and Roberta Flesh, MD for their loving support and guidance during her lifetime. A special thanks to the Weber Family, MJ Willis, Michael Thansen, Ann Kelly for adding joy and support to Nadja's life.

Funeral arrangements and burial at Saratoga National Cemetery will be at the convenience of the family.
