

Nancy Danforth Norfleet

September 2, 1937 - November 2, 2011

Albany - Nancy Sue Danforth Norfleet, 74, passed away on Wednesday November 2, 2011. In her final fight with COPD, she was able to fight one last time to have a few more laughs with her family and friends. She was the daughter of the late Benjamin and Margaret (Sears) Danforth. Mr. Danforth was a sports writer for the Times Union for over 55 years.

Nancy is survived by her loving sister, Barbara Meyer and her husband Richard. She is also survived by her five loving children, Charles (Carol) Norfleet, Larry (Jody) Norfleet, Margaret "Peggy" Norfleet, Joseph (Dawn) Norfleet and James (Gina) Norfleet and her nephews Kenneth (Laura) Meyer and Richard (Colleen) Meyer, and nieces, Linda (David) Alling and Kim Meyer. Nancy loved being with her ten grandchildren, Ashley, Benjamin, Corey, Stephen, Gabrielle, Jenna, Loren, Arianna, Dominic, Nicholas and one great-grandchild Connor. She is survived by her best friends Gail (Bob-late) MacIntosh and Ginger (Joe-late) Miller.

Nancy was a lifelong resident of Albany and a lifelong member of the United Voluntary Services, singing and dancing for the veterans in our local hospitals. After graduating from Albany High School in 1955, she earned a Business and Accounting degree from the Albany Business School. She worked at Armory (Garage) Automotive for over 36 years, recently retiring. Nancy truly loved her job and will deeply miss all of her friends at Armory. Besides her family, friends and career, Nancy's passion in life was music. She was a member of the Albany Musicians Association Inc., Local 14, AFM and American Musicians

Association. Being a singer and drummer, she often talked about her days in the Louis Ramundo Band and other bands with Joe and Ginger Miller. She participated in the first telethon for Cerebral Palsy with the Ramundo Band. Up until her passing, she continued to promote bands in the Capital Region with her friend Ginger.

Nancy always had an open door at her house. During her spare time from working two jobs, maintaining her household, musical activities, etc., she loved being a "second mother" to numerous families.

Our family would like to thank the Armory Automotive Family and the Metzner Family for over 36 years of friendship and enjoyable employment for our mother.

A service in celebration of Nancy's life will be held at the McVeigh Funeral Home, 208 North Allen Street, Albany, NY 12206 on Monday, November 7, 2011 at 10:30 am. Relatives and friends are invited and may call Sunday, November 6, 2011 from 4 to 8 pm at the funeral home.

Contributions can be made in Nancy's name to The Community Hospice of Albany County, 445 New Karner Road, Albany, NY 12205.

“ To the Norfleet family, My sincerest sympathy to you all. Your mom was the best. My daughter loved going trick or treating at the house because she let her play the piano. Now she is with my mom, who passed in June, talking about old times at Westland Hills. The next few days will be the hardest, but knowing she is not suffering any more should bring you some comfort. Peace and love to all.##imported-begin##Marie Consuello formerly Appio##imported-end##
