

Nicholas Chrysogelos

December 1, 1956 - December 6, 2011

Albany-Nicholas Chrysogelos, 55, died suddenly Tuesday, December 6, 2011. Nick was the proud owner and operator of N.C. Electric. Besides the love for his family and spending time with them, he was a devoted NASCAR fan, a lover of snow mobiling, four wheeling and working on his classic muscle cars. Nick enjoyed relaxing up at camp while spending the days boating and fishing. Nick was a hard worker who did whatever he could to get everything he wanted in life.

Nick was an amazing husband, father, son, brother and friend. Nick married his high school sweetheart and best friend, Pat "Hazel" Zito Chrysogelos; cherished father of Christina Chase (Steve); Son of Honey Peirce Chrysogelos and the late Peter Chrysogelos; brother of Billy Chrysogelos, Peter Chrysogelos, Holly Weightman (Tom) and the late Cindy Brittell; son in law of MaryAnn Zito and the late Carlo Zito; brother in law of Cathy Sager (Jeff) and Nick Zito (Nancy); many nieces, nephews and friends survive Nick.

“ Nick was a very special person and has touched our lives greatly. Our husbands were the best of freinds since childhood, and now they are looking down on us and will guide us threu life as it goes on."One Day at a Time". I miss our weekends together as friends and would give anything to have them back,but in my heart there always will be the memories of the fun times we shared together. Cherish the memories as each and every one of his friends have so many, he will never be forgotten.##imported-begin##Rose, Bobby & Cinzia##imported-end##

“ *Our deepest sympathies go out to Nick's family.
Nick was a stand-up guy, straight shooter and always true to his word. It was not only an honor to work with him, it was a privilege to call him friend.
Nick, you were truly one of a kind! You will be missed . .

“ Our love to Patti, Christina, Steve and family,

Nick will be forever missed in our lives. We had many good laughs and fun times on our endless vacations and gatherings. Nick was always a big teddy bear and the kids enjoyed his antics, as Mike and I did too. We can't believe he is gone, so instead we will keep him forever in our hearts until we meet with him again one day. Be prepared Nick for a "zinger or two" Rest in peace friend. “ Patti, Christina and family,

We are so deeply sorry! He will be missed! We will never forget the day Nick picked us up on the boat from beach across from where you and the family were hanging out for the day...at the time we had only the 1 jetski and 4 people - and it was time to head back to our camp so he told Coll & String Beanie to get on the back of his jetski and gave them a FUN ride back - right to our dock. That was Nick...always taking care of those he felt close to. Patti & Christina, he is your guardian angel now. And I bet he will peek in on everyone he felt close to now & again, too!

All our sympathy and love to you!!!##imported-begin##Donna & Michael and Tori, Collin & Michaela Sipperly##imported-end##

“ Patty, Christina, and Steve,
We love you guys!! No words can take away our pain, but remember all the good times we had; laughing, swimming, boating and fishing (Nick catching nothing...)We were fortunate enough to have Nick in our lives. Even know he wanted NO STINK-IN FRIENDS, he had us whether he wanted us or not! He will be missed by so many, especially us!! His laughter will live on in all of us.
