“ Nick Conte was a special guy to me and so many others. Through our work with CDCA we became good buddies. We discovered that we had actually competed against one another in football, he for Albany State and me for Siena. Years ago we attended conferences together and shared some real good times. For some inexplicable reason, for the last three days the newspapers have remained unread on my kitchen table and I missed a chance to say good-bye to Nick. Now I really wish I had stayed in touch far more than I did. Nick touched many people in many ways and he will be truly missed.
Farewell, my friend Nick.##imported-begin##David Motta##imported-end##

“ My heart is saddened to think of the world without Nick. He was a good friend and colleague, and lived life to its fullest. We worked together in CDCA for many years and his dedication to helping students find a good life path was an example for all of us who care about children. Nick's smile, sly sense of humor, and ability to see the good in others will be his legacy for all of us who had the privilege to be his colleagues. Rest well, my friend.##imported-begin##Bette Ewing##imported-end##
