“ Oldemiro "AL" Henrique Prudencio

“ Dear Lucy and Cristina, I am so shocked that Al passed into God's arms. I know that he was very proud of his wife Lucy, his daughter Cristina, his other children, and his grandchildren. He also had a habit of showing me every time he bought a luxury car, usually a Mercedes or a BMW. I did know about Al's passing and I am sorry that I did not. He also very proud of the franchises that he, Lucy and the children (and even grandchildren) helped to build. He came from Portugal and reached the American dream. I was very impressed with the fact that he had undergone certain surgery, and despite the risks still worked very hard over the objections of his family, but despite all of that I was most impressed that he lived so long after that surgery; I remember him telling me don't worry for me, I have the heart of a 19 year old. God Bless Al who I'm sure is with God. Due to Covid I have been unable to attend our mutual church, Mater Christi, I stayed out of Dunkin for the same reason, and somehow I missed his obituary in the newspapers. My condolences to Lucy who was always my friend, and to Cristina whom I met when she was a very young woman, and to the entire Prudencio family.
Sincerely,
Jim Hennessey
