Pam is survived by her loving husband Joseph of 51 years and celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in Cape Cod with her family (a place she loved going), her son Daryl (Nikki) and grandsons Nathan and Parker of Orange CA, her daughter Heather of Delmar, NY. She is also survived by her twin Paula (Fred) Card and two other sisters who are also twins, Karen (Allen) Armsby and Sharon (Buck) Kasowski as well as several nieces and nephews.

“ She had the most beautiful smile, unique laugh, and spent her life caring for those close to her. When you were with her, you always felt like you came first. She was a one of a kind, extraordinarily kind and considerate individual. My heart breaks for Daryl, Heather, and my Uncle Joe but I know she will rest tonight in peace and hopefully tonight, in the arms of her mother and father. I love you so much Aunt Pam and hope you will never be far from us all. <3 Nicki
