“ Trish took care of my Dad for about 6 months in my home through Hospice. She was very caring to us here each day she was here and talked about her family and the love she had for them. What a terrific lady.

“ I worked with Trish in the Hospice Inn at St Peter's Hospital. She was witty smart, and beautiful and beloved by all who met her. She was so gently and loving to the patients and their families. If you knew her, you knew she loved her kids more than she loved life. She enjoyed her dogs and watching the puppies go to good homes. She never let bad things make her bad...she kept positive always believing in the power of making your dreams come true if you could hang in and keep the faith.

There's no sense to her being gone from us, and we all know the world lost one of the best we'll ever have the pleasure to know. God bless her family, her children and her parents and siblings especially who mourn her from a lifetime of knowing her. Be with them during this time of deep sadness.

We are all blessed to have had her in our lives for the tick of a clock, leaving us wanting just one more visit, one more joke, one more witty comeback.

Fly high, girl!!

Love you.
