“ May I ask? Doing genealogy searches on the internet I found this obituary of Patricia Sarraino wife of Joseph Sarraino and I saw that Joseph was the son of GIUSEPPE SERRAINO and TINDARA MARINO. Now a Giuseppe Serraino, born on November 23, 1881, and brother of my grandfather Salvatore Serraino, emigrated to the USA at the beginning of the 1900s starting from Gioiosa Marea (ME), and lived in Albany. Is it possible to have other information to find out if the two Giuseppe Serraino (Joseph's father and my grandfather's brother) are the same person? Thanks

“ Oh Aunt Pat; so many fond memories of pancakes whenever we'd sleep over while visiting Albany. So long ago now, but still cherished times of your love and support going all the way back to the old homestead by the tracks. God bless and welcome you. Love,
Connie

“ I loved my mother inlaw she was one the best soles I ever knew. Her gift in life was her heart, knowing how to be a great wife to her husband of 58 years, and loving mother with her children, and grandmother. A beautiful sole lost but will be not forgotten.
RIP Mom.....
