“ Our deepest sympathy to all of you. Your mother was one of the sweetest people we knew. Dean felt both her and your father were part of his family with them being so close to his grandparents, the Kantorciks. We have fond memories of her and your father and take comfort in the fact they are now together again.

“ Kathy, Michele, Kim and the Sleasman I don't know personally, My memories of your mom go back to childhood. She was always a cool mom and had a wonderful sense of humor! She was open to the trends of the time and was just one of the girls. Later in life I saw her less frequent but was always very happy to see her. She was sassy and I loved that about her. She will be missed. I pray you fill the hole in your hearts with happy memories of her. She is with your dad and brother. My love and condolences. ❤️🙏

“ My dearest grandma , my fondest memories were always at your house. You always greeted us with a smile and “ are you hungry “ , I will never forget the smell of the baths you let us take with dove soap and a wash cloth ... the light turned on in the closet so we felt safe . Your humor , your smile how everything was always taken care of and asked “ what do you need “ all the cousins playing in the basement with the famous huge sombrero and how we would “ break our arm “ swinging around the basement posts ! You are such a light and I can only hope to be half the woman you are , now you can eternally rest until we meet again. I love you ❤️ sending my family all my love and deepest sympathy .

“ Dear Mom,

The hardest part in visiting you the past five years was not being able to have you in the comfort of our home. I would have given anything to change it. I'm so sorry...you are the strongest beyond measure and if Moms were Flowers I'd pick you! 'THE LONG GOODBYE'. I have missed you for a long time. Rest in Peace with Dad and Jacky.

Your Baby, Kim

The Mother Who Knew Me

*I grieve your loss day after day,
As you sit before me just wasting away; With no fond remembrance of days gone by,
Just an empty existence and no reasons why.
I am your child, yet you see a stranger.
You shake and you scream as though you're in danger. So I search in vain for the mother who knew me, Sharing stories and photos in hopes that you'll see. But, your eyesight is fading like salt to a sore,
Your hearing is failing just to add one thing more.
Then a glimmer of you shows up as I'm glancing When the music I play inspires your dancing. So I take in this moment for all that it's worth And pray for the day of finding a cure. Please make it soon, Lord, for everyone's sake,
For every soul suffering this wretched heartache.*
