“ Granny

*I met Ma Allardice a few years before with her smiling face gracing my door.
We've since learned to know her as Granny,
you all know she could be quite canny.
Her needs and desires were just but a few and those that she wanted you needn't a clue.
Her pride was her family to this I attest,
for all of them she thought only the best.
The wisdom that she gained over the years, would sometimes be expressed in silent tears.
My knowledge of Granny may not be as many and I'm sure the stories are plenty.
Some good and some bad and some in between, not one of them
did she ever tell mean.
One secret she told me was she liked her food, I hope she's not mad that I told her brood.
I see solemn faces, some sad and some happy, Ma would say it's no time to be sappy.
Her taste was simple when it came to her attire, her dignity and strength I would aspire.
My words are simple and sometimes not right, so here I confess I'm not all that bright.
A chuckle I hear from Granny's light spirit. " You fool your not even near it."
We'll miss her for sure, it's hard to depart. Know this for sure she's part of your heart.

“ Dear Kevin, Brian, Scott, Maureen & Patrick,

I knew your mom and dad, Charlie from the time that I workrd at the Albany County Sheriff's Department. I knew you guys in your youth, and mine too. HaHa.

I think about your dad often, we had some great times. Your mom was a great woman. She always made me laugh. They were happy go lucky people. Good people. I hope that you find comfort in the memories that you all made together. My deepest sympathy.

“ Maureen, Pete, Daniella, Brittany, Casey & Alanna

I am so sorry about the loss of your mom & granny. She was always a sweet & friendly woman. I will always remember our conversations at your family parties & her "love" of listening to her grandchildren playing Rockband! May she rest in peace. You are all in our thoughts & prayers.
