“ Paul was an intregal part of a great group of friends growing up. What fun all the kids in the neighborhood had during those times when we had free range to go out and explore together. Even back then he had a quick sense of humor and a bright smile and readily shared in all the fun.

My sincere condolences to all Paul's family and friends. I'm so sorry for your loss.

“ I was shocked to hear from a co price Chopper friend of Paul's sudden passing. IT was always a pleasure to see Paul and his wife doing their weekly shopping and chatting with them. Working at Price Chopper over the years I was lucky enough to meet some really genuine people. Iam so glad that I crossed paths with Paul . He was so well liked and respected .

“ My God. I have so many memories of working with Paul. We laughed so hard on so many occasions as we worked at "The Gate" together. He inspired me to retire early and I thank him for that. Life is very short and so unfair at times. Rest in Peace my friend. Scott Fernau

“ Many fond memories of working with Paul, Always a pleasure when Diane and Paul would shop in Bethlehem, talk about old days, Paul also had an eye for art, I remember him showing his work to me and it caught me off guard, didn't realize the talent he had, My thoughts and prayers and healing prayers are with you all God bless

“ Paul's wry humor and witty commentary about life will be sorely missed. I hope he can draw/paint to his heart's content while the Beatles play on the radio and the Penguins are beating the opponent on TV. Until we meet again <3
