

Paul C. Hognestad

December 8, 1953 - January 28, 2021

Voorheesville-Paul C. Hognestad, 67, entered Eternal Life Thursday, January 28, Anno Domini 2021 at St. Peter's Hospital. Born in Catskill, NY he was the son of Joan DiPong Hognestad and the late Clifford Hognestad.

Paul was the longtime service manager for Cummins Diesel in Albany where he was known as the "go to guy to get anything fixed." He left Cummins to become "The King of Salt" in the Capital District, and then went on to assist his sons with their business.

Paul will be remembered for his jokes and humor, quick wit and love of all things family, especially his beloved sons. He enjoyed boating and snowmobiling.

Paul was the loving husband for 40 years of Kathleen M. Kearns Hognestad; cherished father of P.J. Hognestad and Sean Hognestad (Emily); brother of Pauline Lacovara; he is survived by many nieces, nephews and friends.

Relatives and friends are invited to visit with Paul's family Wednesday, February 3, 2021 4:00 pm to 7:00 pm at the McVeigh Funeral Home, 208 North Allen Street, Albany, NY 12206. Please only enter the funeral home

“ It was very sad to hear about Paul. I have not seen him since graduation, but we were in the same section from 7th - 9th grade. He was one of my best friends and we helped each other navigate those difficult years. He was very funny and always kept everyone laughing.

Funny story: In 8th grade we were in a group that had to select a presidential candidate and create a campaign for him. Of course we selected Pat Paulson from Laugh-In. Paul wrote the campaign song: "In the White House with Pat Paulson" to the tune of Creams "White Room". Paul sang it by himself to the whole class. It was hilarious.

Thanks for letting me share.
