“ I do not have the words to express the sadness and the void I have in my soul right now. I don't know how I am going to live my life with out Paulie. He was the "bestest" friend I ever had. The only bit of comfort I have at tis time is knowing that he is no longer suffering and that he's back home with his loed ones that passed before him. God bless your soul. Judy

“ *Dad,
You were sick and tired and I knew that God would soon come to take you. You fought so hard, but through the pain, you stayed strong,
I knew the day would come when God would come to carry you away. It doesn't make it any easier to say good bye, and I try so hard not to cry.
I can't help but feel defeated; or even a little cheated, that God came and took you away.
After we just reunited after all these years. I hope and pray that you could have stay with me a little longer. Because these last 6 months I got to know you and you got to know me, Kimmy, Michael, and Jacob. I will always cherish the time we had. I know someday, we will meet again on the other side and pick back up where we left off.
I love you dad.....*
