

Paul L. Weafer

January 30, 1946 - April 3, 2020

Albany-Paul L. Weafer, 74, of ALBANY, NY, passed away peacefully on April 3, 2020. He was born January 30, 1946 in Winchester, Massachusetts, the only child of Kenneth A. Weafer and Kathleen Kelly Weafer.

Paul is survived by his beloved wife of 45 years, Patricia Collins Weafer and is the devoted father of Kenneth C. Weafer (Tierney Dugan) of Latham, N.Y. and Christine Weafer Deegan (Michael Deegan) of Cohoes, N.Y. He is the cherished grandfather of Rayne, Camille, and Brice Weafer, Tyler Dugan, and Michael P. and Patrick Deegan.

Paul was a graduate of Vincentian Institute in Albany, NY, Niagara University, and Albany Law School. He worked for 30 years at the New York State Legislative Bill Drafting Commission, the last 20 of which he served as the Chief Counsel to the Commission and was often referred to as “best bill drafter in Albany” since Robert Moses. Upon his retirement from state service, Paul was a partner of Weafer and Venter Government Services. He was active in Albany politics his entire life. He served as the CEO of the Albany County Industrial Development Agency, past Chairman of the Albany Water Board, and was also a past member of the Albany Charter Review Commission and the Albany Citizens’ Police Review Board.

Paul, like his father, was a lifelong fan of the Boston Red Sox. (He was endearingly referred to as “Papi” – after David “Big Papi” Ortiz – by his grandchildren.) He was also a dedicated fan of Notre Dame Football. He took an active interest in youth sports in the Capital Region, following and fostering the athletic careers of the best in the area. When his son was younger, he coached Pop Warner football and all levels of youth baseball and became President of the Central Babe Ruth baseball league in the early 1990s. He rarely missed a game; he could be found at Albany Academy football, basketball and baseball games, even long after his own kids had graduated.

Paul, known as “Weaf” to his friends, had a magnetic personality and a larger than life presence that filled a room. He had a quick wit and a playful sense of humor. He was inquisitive, had a sharp mind, and was a wellspring of knowledge; he knew a lot about a lot and could speak with anyone on just about anything. Few were more gregarious than Weaf; he couldn’t help but strike up a friendly, and never dull, conversation with whomever came into his orbit. He was a loyal and devoted friend, who summoned all his gifts and talents to help a friend in need. His extraordinary generosity extended well beyond his friendships; he was a champion for the underdog and a relentless advocate for those who sought his aid and counsel. Paul developed a strong faith in his youth and maintained it to the very end, reassuring the nurses who took such loving care of him of the unconditional and boundless love of the Blessed Mother.

But above all, for Paul, family was supreme. Of all his achievements, nothing was more important to Paul than being a faithful and loving husband and a supportive father. And when each of his grandchildren arrived, he doted on them inexorably.

The family would like to thank the selfless nurses and physicians of the ICU of St. Peter's Hospital, who compassionately treated and cared for Paul.

Due to the health crisis, a Mass and memorial celebration of Paul's life will be held at a later date.

“ I am so deeply saddened to learn of Paul's passing. I have fond memories of Paul from my days in the Governor's Counsel's office in the 80's. Paul was always the consummate professional and a delight to work with. I know I speak for many of my former colleagues in saying that Paul will long be remembered! Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ Paul was a wonderful supporter of the members of the City of Albany Police Department and an advocate for the residents, businesses and visitors to the City that he loved and served. It was my pleasure and honor to have worked with Paul on many important issues to the Police Department and the larger community, Paul - your family may be humbly proud of you, Jim Turley.

“ Pat,
I can't tellyou how shocked and sorry I am to hear of Paul's passing. His zest fore life, his inmeasurable knowledge of so many interests that we shared and his love of people will remain with me forever. Please accept my prayers and thoughts. Every Friday or Saturday he would ask me to sing his fathers favorite song "Spanish Eyes" at the Paradiso. So, as the last phrase of the song went: "Please smile at me once more before I go. Soon I'll return. Brininging you all the love your heart can hold. Please sat Si, si. say you and your Spanish eyes will wait for me."

“ I would like to send my condolences to the Weafer family, Pat and the entire family. I had known Paul as a young man who frequented the Albany Parks, where Paul was a park director when he was a young man. Paul and I befriended each other at a young age, and he became a role model for many of us youngsters back then. Paul was exceptionally loyal and caring for me and my brothers, as we were attracted to his welcoming personality. This relationship carried on for years during my college days, and through my professional career as a college football coach. Paul was always there to advise, encourage, and to cheer on your accomplishments. He was a selfless leader who will be missed tremendously. There are not many men who carried themselves with the class that he did. He was always there for his friends and family. What a great man, and servant of the people he touched in his everyday life.

Sincerely,

“ To Pat, Christy, and KC...

It is with profound disbelief that we heard of the passing of Weaf. It only seems like a short time ago that we were laughing and telling stories at TJ's.

While we are deeply saddened, we also know that Paul's deeply religious conviction has resulted in his eternal reward. His place with God will help steer each us and strengthen our moral compass.

Please accept our sincerest condolences, thoughts, and prayers.

May he rest in peace.

“ Pat and family, My deepest condolences to the family for your loss. His obituary says it all for Paul's love for family, friends and willingness to help anyone who called, no truer words can be stated. He was a great drafter always thinking outside the norm. I had the honor and pleasure to have worked with Weaf for 25 plus years at LBDC. I have many fond memories of our times there together, forming a life long friendship, and deep respect for him. He will be missed and may he RIP. Your in our hearts and prayers.

“ Pat, KC, Christy
Marie and I are so sorry to hear of Paul's passing. Paul and I have been friends since the early 60's when we played baseball together for his Dad with Scully Post. Later when our sons were of age we got together at Central Babe Ruth and then Paul got our Mickey Mantle team going for our sons to continue baseball. He was great to both of my sons as they started their working careers with advice and help. Even though he was a Red Sox fan, I always loved to run into Paul and Pat at the Gingerman on Thursday nights. There are so many great memories I have with Paul. Certainly you know it, but Paul was a wonderful guy and even a better friend.

“ One of the greatest bill drafters ever, and so generous with his advice. I will always remember those long nights working together to get the last-minute changes to some of the most important legislation of our time just right. Often, we would just talk about almost anything for hours. Paul was a special man.

I had painted his father's house on Woodlawn Ave, and I guess Paul liked my work and he hired me to paint his home on Winthrop. He was one of the friendliest customers I ever had. I can still hear the sound of his cheerful voice in my head. He will be missed, that I am sure of. Rest in Peace Paul.*

“ In this time of grief, it is difficult to imagine that Paul, so full of life, our friend, is gone. I imagine him editing that beautiful obituary, which captures him so well and needs no improvement, simply from the joy of editing. He loved the art and craft of bill drafting. Another thing he loved was movies but not the movie Fargo which I recall he hated with a Pauline passion. Yet, and this was so Paul, he, with equal passion, wanted to understand why others, myself included, liked the movie. For me, a lot of Paul is captured in that memory minor, in some ways, as the case may be.

Godspeed Sweet Paul and may flights of angels sing thee to thy rest.

Working closely at the Bill Drafting Commission with Paul, I saw his humanity and intellect. Paul took a genuine interest in mentoring, giving opportunity to those starting out and giving a second chance to those deserving. His professional and personal guidance were based on decades of legal experience and an understanding of how best to give advice. His sense of humor, his knowledge of local and national politics and his bill drafting expertise were without peer. A year ago I had lunch with Paul and his friend Tom Venter. We reminisced about shared workplace experiences, the state of the world and the importance of family. I most remember Paul's genuine concern and warmth.

Deeply saddened by the loss of Paul. He was a great friend during my early years growing up in Albany New York. We shared many memorable times while attending VI elementary school and through our high school years at Vincentian Institute. We competed in Little League and Babe Ruth baseball during our summers growing up. I now live in Colorado Springs, Colorado and was informed of his passing through our mutual friends in Albany. *Pat and family,
My condolences to you on your loss. Summer of 1989 I received a phone from Weaf for an interview at LBDC. Of course, the fact that I was also a Niagara University grad didn't hurt my chances. Paul was tremendously patient with me and I learned much about the world, politics and life in general from him. My thoughts and prayers go out to all of you.*

My deepest regrets for Pat and family, and for myself and all that called Paul friend. For there could be no other that fills that title better. I have missed our hours of discussions about the Sox , Yanks and baseball in general. We know a lot of people, but none more sincere and none with a bigger heart. I'm sure the big guy is debating Ted Williams right now. You get him Weaf.

Pat. KC and Christy,

I am shocked and saddened at the news of Paul's passing. Weaf was one of the most unique individuals I had the pleasure to know. We, and debated so many interests that we shared. Mostly politics. The true stamp of a loyal friend is when one person is not a fan of a certain person, and the other goes to the ends of the earth to explain the reasons why he is, indeed, a fine man. Paul was loyal to a fault. But that is what mattered he stuck to his convictions. I called him often for political advice, even though we were usually on opposite sides. He never turned me down. Pat, on Weekend nights after you guys had dinner at Paradiso, he would ask me to sing his father's favorite song "Spanish Eyes". I'll leave you with this line: "Soon I'll return. Bringing you all the love your heart can hold. Say Si si. Say you and your Spanish eyes will wait for me".

I remember Weaf well from ALS as a larger than life person. We shared an apartment together in the Summer of 1970 when he was studying for the NYS bar. He was a memorable and great guy that I never forgot. I was not aware that he had accomplished so much in life post ALS, but not remotely surprised. God bless all.

Worked with Paul at LBDC probably forever. No nicer, smarter, better drafter, no better person I've ever had the privilege of being associated with or friend of. Got very sick in 1996 and forced into retirement. Shortly after I received a beautifully written letter from Paul. That was 1996. I still have that letter. That's who Paul Weaver was. I'm so sorry for his loss, will keep him in my prayers. Thank you for Paul. God bless.
