“ It is with genuine fondness that we remember Peter. I was a boy in the barber chair of Peter's father. We worked with him at Philip Livingston. Mary and I shared the struggles of middle school with "Pete". He was a friend and good support for the teacher's association. Neil and Mary Dugan##imported-begin##Neil Dugan##imported-end##

“ I'll always treasure the gift God gave me of your love and friendship these past eight years. The European and Caribbean cruises, trips to Las Vegas, New York City, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Florida, Pennsylvania, New Jersey....time spent at your home with family and friends, planting flowers in the yard, exploring the bike paths, Sunday brunches, the wonderful meals you always cooked for us, sharing our love of music and photography, long walks....I have our pictures to remind me of the cherished moments we shared and I'll always have the memories in my heart. Forever you and your family will be in my thoughts, prayers and heart.
All my love,
