“ To the family of Piper. I heard about your daughter, granddaughter at mass today. This evening I watched the Tribute Video & I recognized your sweet little girl's gorgeous bright smile and eyes from Church. I recall complimenting her cool purple glasses recently.

I want to offer my condolences to you all. As Fr Jim said, you were chosen as very special people to be the parents and caregivers to a child with disabilities and extraordinary needs. I can see from the video how much love is present among your family.

I wish you Gods peace to somehow bear your loss. Comfort knowing she is dancing with Jesus.

“ To the Lourinia Family,
My thoughts and prayers are with you all during this difficult time. I never had the pleasure of working with Piper at Langan School but would see her everyday in the hallways...what a beautiful girl with a contagious smile!! Truly an angel who touched many lives.

“ Dear Lourinia Family
My heart aches for u. Piper was one of those kids that made your day so much better. I enjoyed working with her at the center. I know she will always be remembered for all her love and kindness.
All my love Jessica

“ I never had the opportunity to meet Piper, however, I believe her Poppy Richard Loveday was my 9th grade social studies teacher. My deepest sympathies are with your entire family. My grandmother, a strong Christian woman, said it is the most difficult thing in life to go through (my three uncles died before she did) because it is not the natural progression of life. My cousin's daughter lost her daughter three years ago and the loss is still so great (it was her only child). God bless.

“ This is what I picture Piper doing in heaven.

*So go and run free
So go and run free with the angels
Dance around the golden clouds
For the lord has chosen you to be with him
And we should feel nothing but proud
Although he has taken you from us
And our pain a lifetime will last
Your memory will never escape us
But make us glad for the time we did have
Your face will always be hidden
Deep inside our hearts
Each precious moment you gave us
Shall never, ever depart*

*So go and run free with the angels
As they sing so tenderly
And please be sure to tell them
To take good care of you for me*

Love you Kevin and Jess.
