“ I was so sad to hear of the loss of Qamila. She came to the bus with a smile everyday. In the afternoon her dad got her off the bus and greeted her by calling her "Princess" the smile on face was priceless. I will always remember her laughing as we danced and sang on the bus.

We are so heartbroken for you on hearing of your daughters passing. There can be nothing worst than loosing a child. Although we never met her the warmth and love in your eyes when speaking about her made us realize what a wonderful girl she was.

“Qamile was a part of the Best Buddies program that I was involved with at school starting last year. I immediately knew from the first meeting after getting to know her, that I wanted to be her buddy. Unfortunately, it didn't end up working out that way and I got paired with someone else. I still kept in contact with Qamile through school. About halfway through the school year last year, right before the pandemic, I decided to help out with the gym class she was in during my lunch period. It was one of the best decisions I have made in my life. I instantly grew a bond with her, and I would ask her every day how she was doing. She would reply “good,” each time. She was always so positive, no matter what was thrown her way, and that showed true strength. She ALWAYS brought a smile to my face. She always made me laugh with her, just because of how strong and amazing she truly was.

The last words I said to her was right before school got shut down in March. My last words to her were, “have a great rest of your day, Qamile!” and she said, “Thank you.” If I had known, I would've said so much more, which is part of the reason that I am writing this letter to share.

Qamile was the reason I got up in the morning. She was the reason I smiled and laughed whenever I saw her in the hallways or in gym class, sometimes even after school. And most importantly, she showed me what true strength is. She is the reason that after college, I want to help people like her in schools. She has taught me so much about how to stay strong and remain positive.

To her family and friends, I cannot begin to imagine the pain you must be going through. But I also hope that knowing that she brought so many people, including myself, happiness, is comforting to you. I'm going to miss seeing her every day in school. I'm going to miss walking her to gym, or to her next class. School will never be the same without her, but she is going to be remembered by her strength and courage no matter what was thrown her way. - Kiley Smith

“ Dear Dafina and family,

The news about Qamile is very sad. Your pictures of and stories about her always made me smile. I can picture her swimming, playing with the dogs or smiling and beautiful in her red prom dress. You loved her fiercely and I cannot imagine how you are felling. There are no words, other than, " I'm am so sorry" that I can offer and they are not enough. My sincere wishes that your happy memories of Qamile will help you in this sad time. My deepest condolences and know that I am thinking of you. Alison Bianco and family

“ Qamile was 3 years old when we moved into a house across the street. We had the pleasure of watching her grow and blossom into the beautiful young woman she became. She will always be remembered and will remain in our hearts forever.
